

British Library Digitised Korean Early Books and Manuscripts

Listed here are Korean woodblock-printed books, manuscripts and maps in the British Library which have been digitised and are available online. The list includes links to detailed catalogue records and to the digitised version of the Library's copy, where this exists. Digitisation is continuing and the links will be updated as more works become available online.

Note: The titles are transliterated according to the McCune-Reischauer Romanisation system.
