

PhD research placements at the British Library since 2016 (with links to relevant blog posts or case studies)
Investigating the PhD thesis in multimedia or non-text form (and related event)
European music print culture in the 16th and 17th centuries
Understanding the extent digital-only publishing in the UK: sources of data
First World War Ephemera
Research on the British Library's zines collection to improve user access (and related event)
Exploring American Foreign Policy Resources at the British Library
Online access to catalogues of India Office Private Papers foundation collections
Exploring British Library collections through twentieth and early twenty-first century anti-poverty activism (and related event)
Profiling the Digital Humanities Landscape in China
Understanding the Economic Impact of the Knowledge Quarter
General Election 2015 Web Archive
Exploring food activism through the archives: the relationship between animal rights campaigns and food activism in the UK 1950 - 2015
Science in society
The printed books of Sir Hans Sloane (1660-1753), physician and collector: blog one , blog two 21 st Century British Comics: blog one , blog two Charting the King's Maritime Collection
Karl Marx and the British Library
Exploring and Recording Textiles in the British Library Collections
Greek Papyri of Late Antique Egypt
Independent, D-I-Y, and activist BAME publishing, in print and online, in 21st century Britain
Contemporary Collecting from Australasia
Researching the EU Referendum Through Leaflet and Web Archive Collections
Privy Council Appeal Cases
Developing Access to the Evolving English VoiceBank
Understanding the Network Power of the Living Knowledge Network
The Representation and Interpretation of James Cook's Voyages in the 19th and 20th Centuries
William Blake at the British Library
Virus checking in long-term digital collection management and digital preservation

Telling the Stories of the Treasures of the British Library
Political cartoons in India in the 1930s and 1940s
Policy development with the British Library
Playbills in context: linked open data for historical playbills
North American Migrant Narratives
Examining the role of internal engagement and communications in the British Library
First World War French posters
Exploring our 'Endangered Archives' Projects in Africa
Exploring music archives of 20th-century British composers
Unlocking Charles I's Vision of Rome
Art, Poetry and Politics – Contemporary British Artists' Books: Blog 1 , Blog 2
Investigating Anne McLaren's Notebooks