

Application to Renounce Registered Interests

You may use this form to renounce all or some of your titles.

- By renouncing your PLR rights you are requesting to remove some or all of your registered titles from the register. This means that you will no longer receive any loans information or payments on the renounced books.
- You may wish to check to see if your titles are still earning PLR before you decide to renounce them. It's worth bearing in mind that loans information is collected from a sample of UK Library Authorities which is rotated each year, so borrowings may fluctuate depending on which Libraries are included in the sample. If you have an online account you can use the Loan Data Insights section to see if any loans have been recorded in the last few years.
- You may renounce books which have been assigned to you (ie the rights have been transferred to you on the death of the original registered owner, or assigned as a gift).
- Renouncing your PLR rights does not affect any future applications to register for PLR. You may re-register at a later date after you have renounced your rights.
- Please contact us at plrauthorservices@bl.uk if you wish to renounce your titles temporarily.

(A) PERSONAL DETAILS

- You may renounce titles registered for the UK scheme only, the Irish scheme only, or for both schemes. Please tick (✓) below to indicate which schemes you are renouncing titles for.
- If you are an executor and wish to renounce the deceased owner's PLR rights rather than proceed with the transfer of PLR please insert the original registered owner's name and enter your contact details. (You should also sign the Declaration section in your capacity as executor.) We also require a copy of the Death certificate and Will or Grant of Probate.

Are you renouncing titles registered for: UK PLR? Irish PLR? Both PLR schemes?
